

What is Day Camp?

Day Camp is the Vacation Bible School ministry of Riverside.

Children going into 1st grade through 6th grade will be given the opportunity to grow through Christ by:

- Age appropriate Bible studies
- Great counselors
- Exciting worship with fun skits
- Creative rotations
- Preschool curriculum available for your teaching

More Helpful Information

Day Camp generally runs from 9am to 2pm, but can easily be flexible with your church's needs.

On Thursday night, there is a closing celebration. Deposits go toward the total balance of Day Camp. After January 18, 2019 deposits for Day Camp are non-refundable.

Congregations are responsible for paying mileage on round trips from Riverside and mileage accumulated in transporting staff from the host home to the church. Mileage is at the 2019 federal rate per mile.

Ratio of Day Camp staff to children is approximately 1:15; the minimum staff per team is 3. Our staff is full of individuals who have committed to serving God by being counselors for the duration of the summer. They have a deep desire to build relationships and share about Jesus while having a lot of fun!

God is moving through Day Camp!

What others are saying:

"We don't have many kids in our combined churches, but the most awesome thing is that the whole COMMUNITY benefits from this event! We have at least 30 kids who are not linked with any church that comes to Day Camp. This may be the only time they experience the church atmosphere and hear about the love of Jesus. We host between 40 and 50 kids each year with the majority being non-members of our churches. It's a fantastic event for the whole community!"
